Will take notice that you have been sued in the above named court, and that you must answer the petition filed therein by the above named plaintiff on or before the 25th day of December, 1895, or said petition will be taken as true, and a judgment rendered against Arvilla K. Taylor and L. H. Taylor for the sum of $350.00 with interest thereon at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, from October 15, 1894, and for costs of suit, and a further judgment against said defendants for the foreclosure of a certain mortgage made by Arvilla K. Taylor and L. H. Taylor her husband to Louisa F. Hinman bearing date October 15th, 1893, upon the following described premises situated in the county of Phillips and State of Kansas, to-wit:

Old People.
Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys, will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters.
This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whisky nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alternative.
It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding nature in the performance of the functions. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price 50c per bottle at S. S.
Fisher's drug store.

—The Kansas City Times, with its usual enterprise and liberality, has arranged with a dozen leading colleges in the West whereby they give a year's tuition with board, laundry, lights, fuel, etc., in fact all necessary expenses, in exchange for a very reasonable number of subscriptions to their paper. They have prepared a circular giving full information as to the number of subscribers required to secure this scholarship, which they will send out to any one who makes application. The Times is so well known that we think it would be an easy matter for any ambitious young man or woman to secure a scholarship in this way.

The Weekly Kansas City Star Addresses the farmer as a business man and a citizen. Doesn't tell him how to farm, but how to sell, and where and when. And keeps a vigilant eye upon his rights as a shipper, producer and a taxpayer. All the news, too, and plenty of "good reading" for the family. Now read in 100,000 farm houses. Fifty-two big eight-page newspapers for 25 cents.
To any one who sends the WEEKLY STAR five yearly subscribers, together with $1.25 the paper will be sent one year free.

WOMAN'S DEPARTMENT.

WHAT SOME WOMEN ARE DOING.
Miss Florence B. Moffatt is the only woman custom house broker on the North Pacific Coast.

Miss Julia Barret is sole proprietor and manager of one of the largest dry goods houses in Boston.

Mrs. Julia Rice Seney has recently been appointed chief of the Registry Department of the Post Office at Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. E. M. Watson has an apricot orchard in California, managed entirely by herself, and employing three hundred people.

Mrs. Harriet Strong, has an English Walnut ranch three hundred and twenty acres in extent in California.

A Toast—working women, the Bete-noir of fashionable nonentities! All honor to them! Their lives are more earnest than those of women of leisure and, therefore, their influence is more powerful. Work makes women stronger, happier, more helpful, work tends to self improvement, from working women spring reforms of society, education and morality—here's long life and larger opportunity to working women.

Mrs. William Scott a representative woman of the colored people is a lecturer of national reputation, she says the colored people are fully awakened to their duty, and that education and money goes a good ways towards securing for them proper recognition as citizens, schools are being established in all parts of the country and are crowded with boys and girls trying to get an education.
Mrs. Scott has travelled through Missouri and Iowa in the interest of the Western college at Macon the last two years; while twenty years of her own life has been given to the school room.

The "New Women" are coming to the front in Finland, too, they have formed a volunteer fire-brigade in Helsingfors and other towns, and have done first-rate work.

Miss Edith Okey graduated from the veterinary college of Toronto, the first woman to win a diploma there, has hung her shingle at Sandeaval, O.
She has done well and employs three men as assistants.

There are between one and two hundred women in the United States who are lawyers.

The first women to practice law in Kansas were Miss Mary Wattie and Mrs. Helen Combs.

As the month of November draws near to its close the preparation for Thanksgiving commences, in every land the sons and daughters look forward to the last Thursday in November, as the day that will usually bring the family all together again from the youngest to the oldest, or a circle of dear and loving friends, it is a beautiful custom, old fashioned and time honored. A yearly reunion of bringing together those who, between the ties of love are strengthened that might otherwise become weakened by absence. How well we delight to listen when grandpa or grandma tell of their early Thanksgivings they enjoyed, in the old but comfortable log houses, in the time of early settlers, how the floors were scrubbed to a shining white, the big fire-place piled high with big logs, the long table set in the great wide kitchen, the best linen brought out, spun by grandma's own hand, and the best china, with the wonderful blue sceneries on.
Then the dinner the big "Thankgiving bird" placed before grandpa with a good sharp knife near it, with the dishes of squash, turnips, onions and potatoes within reach of grandma, the big chicken pie at the other end of the table near a young man cousin whose business was to look after that special dish. Then the apple sauce, cranberry sauce, currant jelly and pickles, and blackberry jam, the big plate of doughnuts the rolls of golden butter, the rich yellow home made cheese that would melt in your mouth, and the big rice pudding baked in a ten quart pan and just stuffed with raisins, and the pumpkin pies yellow as gold and thick and sweet and big generous pieces and and then the walnuts and batternuts and red checked apples and cider, and all put on the table at once and not served in courses like the up to date dinners. No wonder they like to tell of the olden times as well as we children delight to listen. We live those times all over in our imaginations and we do not forget them, each year should see just such a dinner and served in just such a manner, have it as old time as possible, and when we gather around the festive board piled high with the good things, let us remember that Thanksgiving means giving Thanks, some of us are rich and some are poor in this world's goods, but no matter how situated, we have all of us something something to be thankful for. Don't let us be unmindful of this in our homes of plenty and in our family gatherings, but keep our Thanksgiving heartily, earnestly, and joyously giving Thanks to the "giver of all good gifts." It is well that as a nation we have set apart a day every year for this purpose, and as an American people we should thank God for our national blessings, in searching history. The first New England Thanksgiving was not observed by either Plymouth pilgrim or Boston puritan.

"Giving God Thanks" for safe arrival and many other liberal blessings was first heard on New England's shore from the Popham colonists at Mohegan in the Thanksgiving service of the church of England. Days set apart for Thanksgiving were known before the reformation, in the year of 1621 at Plymouth, Governor Bradford sent out men to hunt wild fowl and larger game for the purpose of supplying meat for their feasts of rejoicing over their abundant crops and the "express pleasant privilege of having gathered them in and stored them." The men returned well laden with quantity enough to last the Thanksgiving week (not one day), although there were only fifty-five English to eat of the Pilgrim dinner there were plenty of Indians. King Massasoit and ninety of his followers were partakers of the feast for three days, but they did not come empty handed but joined fraternally by bringing five deer which they presented to the governor. It was not until after King Phillip's war the following year 1677 that the first regular Thanksgiving proclamation was printed. And now we who are abundantly supplied with everything forget not those who are less fortunate, but fill a good big basket for some one needy and give it, and be Thankful we have it to give along with the privilege.

Prof. Nutting Dead.
Prof. D. C. Nutting of Reserve, Kans., died Sunday Nov. 3, 1895. Was in his 67th year, born in Massachusetts, spent his boyhood in New York state, his manhood in Kentucky until about 40 years of age. He moved to Brown county, Kans., in 1870 where his home has been since, with the exception of a few years in the western part of the state.
His life work has been that of a teacher for many years, principals of high schools and seminaries. He was teaching a select class when stricken with something like brain paralysis lingering about two weeks.

Prof. Nutting was a great reader, thinker and reasoner. He had a very retentive mind seldom forgetting a name or date. He has left the impress of himself upon the community, as no other man has done. He has given trend and direction to the thoughts and purposes of thousands of young people who have been under his teaching, who have imbibed his spirit and have been blessed by his instruction. He was a man of pure thought, noble impulses, right notions, with a clean, unselfish life. He was a perfect gentleman, courteous, kind, considerate of others feelings, an open hearted manly man.

If truthfulness, purity of purpose, consecration to honest conviction of right faith in God and a righteous life constitute one a christian then D.
C. Nutting was pre-eminently one. He was a christian philosopher, an advanced thinker and a subtle reasoner; often advancing views of truth that were new and to conservative people startling.

He sometimes took long excursions into the realm of metaphysics and speculation, but he never cut loose from the anchor of divine things. He has reared a family of which any man may well be proud. His eldest son Daniel occupies a prominent place in the service of the U. S. Navy. Every member of the family is an intelligent, honorable christian citizen.
Judged by the standard of usefulness, the good done, and the forces for good put in motion his life was a grand success.

While others were making money he was developing intellect and moulding characters. His was the higher, better work. His earthly work is done, but being dead he yet speaketh and his voice will ring in memories for many years to come. "He rests from his labors and his works do follow him.—Kansas Democrat.

Prof. Nutting it will be remembered taught a term of school in our city some five or six years ago. He had many friends here who will be sorry to learn of his death.

New York merchants are said to be organizing for the purpose of memorializing congress for a restoration of reciprocity treaties. Everybody is feeling the loss of foreign trade and its consequent effect on prices alike.
There are two ways to increase cur foreign trade. One is to reduce the price of American productions to a level below that of the rest of the world, and is not to be thought of because prices, especially of farm products, are below the cost of production now. The other is to raise the prices of foreign products to a figure above our own. This can be done in one way by opening the mints of the United States to the free and unlimited coinage of silver. Then, instead of going to India and South America and buying a dollar's worth of goods with fifty cents' worth of silver purchased from us, European nations would be compelled to give 100 cents' worth of silver or gold for every dollar's worth of goods purchased. Then, will the buying nations turn to America for supplies. Then we shall not only have a market but our commodities will command a higher price than at present. Then will the balance of trade be in our favor and the outflow of gold be stopped. These facts are known to the financiers but they affect not to believe them because they profit by the exportation of gold and do not wish it stopped.
If gold exports should cease there would no longer be any excuse for the issuance of interest bearing non-taxable bonds. But why should anybody not interested directly in these speculations in the people's money follow their lead?—State Journal.

Two Lives Saved.
Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had consumption, and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr.
King's New Discovery completely cured her, and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thomas Eggers, 139 Florida street, San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching consumption, tried without result everything else, then bought one bottle of Dr.
King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples, that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in coughs and colds. Free trial bottles at S. S. Fisher's drug store. Regular price 50c and $1.
